

Gallus Pedals

Story-led tours and trusted local partnerships across Glasgow and Scotland

Public tours. Private experiences. Tailored multi-day journeys.

A Glasgow original. A Scotland partner.

A different kind of local operator

Gallus Pedals is a Glasgow-based, story-led tour operator built on local knowledge, genuine warmth, and an uncompromising commitment to quality.

We deliver experiences that go beyond the obvious — weaving culture, history, hidden routes, and real character into every outing.

Our tours are shaped by the stories that define the city — including our signature fleet of bikes named after trailblazing Glaswegian women, reflecting the voices and histories often overlooked in traditional tours.

Our small-group model ensures every guest feels looked after, and our guides are chosen as much for their personality as their expertise.

We've built a strong reputation in Glasgow, and we're now expanding into carefully curated, high-quality multi-day touring across Scotland.

For travel trade partners, we offer a responsive, flexible, and deeply knowledgeable operator who takes the partnership as seriously as the experience itself.

Local Expertise

Born and bred in Glasgow — every route, every story, every recommendation.

Small Groups

Quality over volume. Intimate experiences that guests remember.

Scotland Journeys

Growing portfolio of multi-day itineraries beyond the city.

Built for partnership. Designed for quality.

We understand what travel trade buyers need: reliability, differentiation, ease of communication, and an operator who makes them look good. Gallus Pedals delivers on all of it — with the flexibility to shape experiences around your clients and the commercial structures to make the relationship work long term.

Story-Led Quality

Experiences with depth and character — not tick-box itineraries.

Local Depth

Insider routes and hidden gems your clients won't find in any guidebook.

True Flexibility

Modular, private, bespoke — we adapt to your clients, not the other way round.

Scotland Reach

Expanding multi-day offering — one trusted partner from city to glen.

"We're always open to developing trade partnerships, with commercial structures shaped around volume and how we work together."

Ways to experience Glasgow

From leisurely pedals through the city's neighbourhoods to whisky tastings in hidden venues, our Glasgow day tour programme is designed to suit a wide range of clients and travel styles.

Bike Tours

Classic Glasgow on two wheels. Culture, architecture, and local stories.

E-Bike Tours

All the experience, none of the effort. Perfect for mixed-ability groups.

Walking Tours

Slow down and absorb the city at street level with an expert local guide.

Food Tours

Glasgow's culinary scene through a local lens — authentic and delicious.

Whisky Experiences

Curated tastings with real storytelling — distillery visits and hidden drams.

Private Tours

Fully tailored itineraries for groups who want something truly exclusive.

We don't do generic.

Every tour we run has been designed from the inside out — built around the stories that make Glasgow unlike anywhere else. Our routes take in the places that don't make the postcard, the characters who shaped the city, the flavours locals actually love.

The Gallus Difference

- Routes shaped by locals, not guidebooks
- Guides chosen for warmth and knowledge
- Small groups — never a crowd
- Stories that stick long after the tour ends
- Hidden venues, unexpected moments

What Your Clients Feel

- Genuinely welcomed, not processed
- Connected to the city and its people
- Looked after at every step
- Inspired to return — and recommend
- Confident you made the right choice

Pricing

Public

Our public tours run on scheduled departures and are ideal for individual travellers, couples, and small groups. Clean per-person pricing makes them easy to package and promote.

 Preferred partner pricing can be discussed based on client requirements and projected volumes. Let's find a structure that works for both of us.

Mix, match, and make it memorable.

One of Gallus Pedals' greatest strengths is the ability to combine experiences into seamless, bespoke half-day or full-day programmes. For travel trade partners, this means real creative flexibility — offer your clients something genuinely original that no other operator in Glasgow can replicate.

Bike + Clydeside Distillery

A scenic riverside cycle followed by a private distillery experience at one of Glasgow's finest craft whisky producers.

Bike + Celtic Park

A cultural cycling experience through Glasgow's east end, culminating in an exclusive visit to the home of Celtic FC.

Street Art + Gin Workshop

Explore Glasgow's vibrant street art scene on foot, then unwind with a guided gin workshop in a local distillery.

All modular experiences are available as private bookings. Perfect for incentive groups, luxury FIT, and trade-exclusive departures.

Beyond Glasgow. Into Scotland.

Gallus Pedals is growing its footprint across Scotland, developing high-quality, story-led multi-day touring programmes that pair the energy of Glasgow with the breathtaking landscapes beyond the city.

These aren't templated coach tours. Each itinerary is thoughtfully designed, expertly guided, and delivered with the same warmth and quality that defines everything we do. From the Trossachs to the Highlands, from Islay's distilleries to the Borders' rolling hills — we create journeys that feel personal, not packaged.

1

Tailored, Not Templated

Every multi-day journey is built around your clients' interests and pace.

2

One Trusted Partner

From city to glen — consistent quality, single point of contact.

3

Growing Portfolio

New routes and experiences added regularly — ask us what's coming next.

From a few hours in the city to a week across Scotland.

These sample itineraries are starting points — each one can be refined, extended, or reimagined to suit your clients perfectly.

Glasgow Full-Day

1

Morning bike tour of the city, street art walk through Finnieston, afternoon whisky tasting at Clydeside Distillery. A complete Glasgow story in one day.

2

3-Day Escape

Glasgow highlights, a day into the Trossachs, and an evening in a lochside inn. A perfect short break combining city and countryside.

5-Day Highlights

3

Glasgow, Loch Lomond, Glencoe, Islay distillery trail, and return via the Kintyre coast. Immersive, unhurried, unforgettable.

4

Tailored Itinerary

Your brief, our expertise. We'll create something completely bespoke from scratch — themed, curated, and entirely your own.

Partnership that actually works.

We know that a great experience on the ground means nothing if the booking process is painful. That's why we invest as much in how we work with our trade partners as we do in the tours themselves.

Our Commitment to You

- Fast communication — responses within one business day, always
- Collaborative planning — we work with you, not around you
- Flexible delivery — private, public, bespoke, modular
- Reliable on the day — professional guides, no surprises
- Honest conversations — on pricing, availability, and what's possible

Commercial Approach

We take a collaborative approach to commercial structures, aligning with partner needs and projected volumes.

Whether you're bringing one group or building a year-round programme, we'll find an arrangement that reflects the relationship and rewards the commitment.

No rigid rate cards. No one-size-fits-all. Just a straightforward conversation about what works.

Let's create memorable Scotland experiences together.

We'd love to hear about your clients, your programme, and how Gallus Pedals can become a trusted part of your Scotland offering. Whether you're planning a single group or building a long-term partnership, the conversation starts here.
